

12/23/2022

Tube Watch Mammo Overview

Tube Watch for Senographe Pristina Reduce disruptions. Enhance care.

49 hours

A Tube failure generates

$7-17K

5 hours

Estimated reduction of

Tube Watch™ uses digital twin technology to remotely monitor and predict tube failures before any disruption occurs, enabling advance parts orders and scheduled service at the most convenient and least disruptive time possible.

Monitor

Remotely monitor for tube health indicators and trends

Predict

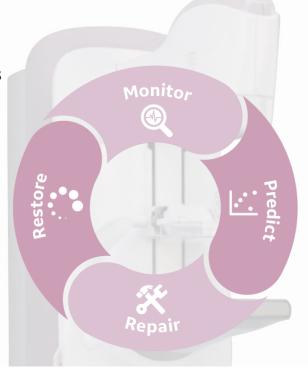

AI-based digital twin technology anticipates potential tube failure before it occurs

Repair

Technicians can fix systems at a more convenient time

Restore

Downtime is minimized. and equipment is back up and running quickly

Outcomes

Operational efficiency

Reduce unplanned downtime

Financial performance

Maintain exam revenue and optimize capital investment

Patient satisfaction

Enhance patient experience with on-time exams and less rescheduling

Staff satisfaction

Less unexpected stress due to reduced unplanned downtime

1 Average downtime calculated based on 25 XR tube failure event for Seno Pristina in '20 (calculated on 24x7).

©2021 General Electric Company – All rights reserved.

GE Healthcare reserves the right to make changes in specifications and features shown herein, or discontinue the product described at any time without notice or obligation. Contact your GE Healthcare representative for the most current information. GE, the GE Monogram, and Tube Watch are trademarks of General Electric Company. GE Healthcare, a division of General Electric Company. GE Medical Systems, Inc., doing business as GE Healthcare.